North-West College Pomona Campus Achieves Top 10% Ranking for ROI in New Study
Recognition Highlights Value of Education at North-West College Pomona

POMONA, CA – North-West College’s Pomona campus has been recognized for its exceptional return on investment (ROI) in a recent study by Georgetown University, ranking among the top 10% of over 4,600 colleges nationwide. The Georgetown study analyzed schools across the U.S. based on ROI at 10, 15, 20, 30, and 40 years post-graduation, placing North-West College Pomona in a prestigious position.

“We are thrilled to receive this recognition,” said Baylor Meza, Chief Operating Officer of North-West College. “Our students work tirelessly to achieve their educational and career goals, and this ranking reflects the dedication of our staff and the strong outcomes our graduates experience. It’s a testament to the value and impact of the education we provide at the Pomona campus.”

The Georgetown study highlights that North-West College Pomona’s ROI ranks in the top 10% of all 4,600 schools evaluated, placing it in the elite group of institutions that deliver strong value over time. This prestigious ranking reaffirms the college’s commitment to providing students with career-focused training and the skills needed to thrive in today’s competitive workforce.

About North-West College

Founded in 1966, North-West College has been committed to training individuals to enter and advance in the health care field for more than 58 years. A leader in allied health education, the College offers short-term programs at nine campuses throughout Southern California, including West Covina, Pomona Valley, Van Nuys, Glendale, Riverside, Anaheim, Long Beach, San Diego, and Bakersfield. The College’s first seven campuses are institutionally accredited by the Accrediting Commission of Career Schools and Colleges (ACCSC), while the San Diego and Bakersfield campuses hold institutional accreditation from the Accrediting Bureau of Health Education Schools (ABHES). Approved by the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education (BPPE), North-West College offers a supportive educational environment for those ready to start a health care career. To date, the College has graduated tens of thousands of students—individuals who have gone on to raise the standard of excellence at health care organizations of all types.
